Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been to bear a child to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by painless operative treatment at the Invalide Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy that has ever been used through druggists, especially for women's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Medicine. It is the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

THE PEOPLE ALL

In Chorus Cried, Give Us Newbro's Herpicide.

This word of late has been in everyone's mouth, and many are wondering what the word signifies, though no one has yet been found, who will deny that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE does the work. Well, for the information of those who are people who like to know all about a good thing, we would say that HERPICIDE means, a destroyer or killer of "Herpes." Now "Herpes" is the family name of a disease caused by various vegetable parasites. A similar microbe causes dandruff, itching scalp, and falling hair; this is the microbe that NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE promptly destroys; after which the hair grows. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Victims of the Bomb.

The casualties of the bomb explosion in Madrid Thursday number 17 dead, 76 injured.

General Weyler, formerly captain general of Cuba, who was struck by a piece of the flying missile is said to be seriously wounded.

It is believed the attempt upon the King's life was the outcome of a plot laid in London following a convention of anarchists in Paris.

Robert Hamilton, an Englishman, is under arrest in Madrid. He is said to closely resemble the man Manuel Morales, who hired the balcony from which the deadly missile was thrown.

English detectives, including the chief, who accompanied the Prince of Wales to Madrid, are at work on the case. Some 30 arrests have been made. Detectives in London are co-operating with those in Madrid.

The young Queen has recovered from the shock, though she is still nervous.

Spanish officials have been warned that another attempt will be made to kill the King.

It is customary for Spanish royal brides to present their wedding robes to the Virgin Mary. Queen Victoria's costly gown, which will not be an exception, will be a unique offering, inasmuch as it is stained with the blood of victims who fell around the royal carriage. When she was hurried out of the damaged coach and conducted by her husband to the reserve carriage she had to walk over the blood-dabbled street among the bodies of writhing human and equine sufferers. Haste prevented her from picking her steps, and thus her skirts, as well as her white shoes, were bedaubed with blood. The Church of Alameda, opposite the scene of the outrage, will probably receive the dress. King Alfonso is greatly troubled that he was the unwilling cause of bringing his wife near a hideous death. He has said repeatedly in sorrowful earnestness to his guests: "I am so miserable at having brought her to face this." Queen Victoria is irreconcilable, declaring that she is responsible for so many persons being killed.

Josephine Terranova Acquitted. Josephine Terranova was acquitted in New York yesterday afternoon of the murder of her aunt, Concetta Reggio. The jury was actually out 15 minutes, staying out merely as a matter of form, as they were unanimous in their belief in the innocence of the girl when they left the jury box.

It might be said that the jury's verdict upholds the "unwritten law." In the first place, Justice Scott in his charge said that the jury might convict the girl of manslaughter, and it was within the discretion of the court to send her to a reformatory. He also said that the jury could acquit, specifying that the girl was insane when she killed her aunt. Although Justice Scott did not mention it, it would then be within the power of the court to commit her to an asylum until such time as her sanity had been determined. But the jury disregarded his suggestion, if it could be called one, and simply said, "not guilty."

Much as the verdict meant to the girl, it did not mean her freedom right away. At the time she killed her aunt she stabbed to death her uncle, Gaetano Reggio, and she is under indictment for murder in the first degree on that charge. So she was taken back to the Tombs to await the decision of District Attorney Jerome, who is at Lakeville, on the question of trying her for killing her uncle.

It was the general opinion of the District Attorney's office last night, no word having been received from Mr. Jerome, that she will not be tried again. There were many reasons for killing her uncle—reasons even stronger than she had for killing her aunt—and if a jury would not hold her responsible for killing her aunt, there is no likelihood of getting a jury that wouldn't sympathize with her for killing her uncle.

This 17-year-old girl who sat through the trial and yesterday's proceedings without any sign of fear and little emotion says that when freed she is going to a convent. She says that she will not return to her husband, even if he should take her. Two Sisters of Charity waited for her outside of the courtroom yesterday, ready, it was said, to take her with them had she been released.

Child Burned at the Stake.

The 5-year-old son of Robert Maroney, of Cedar Grove, Kanawha county, W. Va., was tied to a stake and burned to death by playmates who were emulating the characters in a mock initiation of Red Men, recently presented by members of the local lodge in the public hall at that place. The children, the eldest

A Miraculous Cure. The following statement, by H. M. Adams and wife, Henrietta, Pa., will interest parents and others. "A miraculous cure has taken place in our home. Our child had eczema 5 years and was pronounced incurable, when we read about Electric Bitters, and concluded to try it. Before the second bottle was all taken we noticed a change for the better, and after taking 7 bottles he was completely cured." It's the up-to-date blood medicine and body building tonic. Guaranties to cure. Sold by druggists and at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.
